To whom it may concern

Dear Madam, Dear Sir,

In consideration of the strengthened international sanctions and export control regulations against several countries adopted by the United Nations Security Council, the European Union, the United States of America, Switzerland and other national authorities, the Covestro group (hereinafter COVESTRO) decided to request a confirmation of compliance for the respective business activities with the attached letter agreement (the "Compliance Letter").

COVESTRO and each COVESTRO selling company, have to ensure, that the business activities are always compliant with applicable laws and regulations. COVESTRO does not accept any violation against measures given by national and/or international authorities. With the Compliance Letter, COVESTRO aims to ensure that our business partners are aware of this subject and take the respective measures.

Enclosed please find the Compliance Letter. Please read the document, make the required entries and send it back to the following address:
